DEVELOP A HUNGER ACTION PROJECT IN YOUR COMMUNITY FIGHT HUNGER. TAKE ACTION.

Are you interested in building leadership skills while working with other students to develop ways to launch a hunger-fighting action
project in your community?

Are you interested in learning
how farming can fight hunger and chronic disease in communities throughout NJ?

Join us for this two-day
leadership training institute where you can learn how to take action to fight hunger.

PROVIDING HELP. INSPIRING HOPE. ENDING HUNGER.

The 2019 Teen Leadership Institute is a collaborative partnership between the Community FoodBank of New Jersey and America's Grow-A-Row to teach life-changing leadership skills to high school students to make positive change within their communities.

Students will learn the skills needed to identify their passion, develop an action plan and carry-out a hunger-fighting project within their community.

ABOUT US

The Community FoodBank of New Jersey and America's Grow-A-Row have partnered together for this year's Teen Leadership Institute.

ABOUT CFBNJ

The Community FoodBank of New Jersey distributes food to more than 1,000 different food pantries and soup kitchens throughout NJ.

The food bank also offers nutrition education to reduce the incidence of chronic disease in the communities we serve.

ABOUT AMERICA'S GROW-A-ROW

The mission of America's Grow-A-Row is to positively impact as many lives as possible through a volunteer effort of planting, picking, rescuing and delivering free fresh produce.

2019 TEEN LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE
