Course Syllabus

Department: World Languages

Course: French IV

Level: High Honors

Credits: 5

Course Description:

This course allows students to develop and master the four language communication skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Students will study both the oral and written expression of the language through culturally relevant concepts by reading excerpts from literature or newspapers, using authentic French data and by discussing current events, values and cultural behaviors. This course will prepare students for the advanced study of the French language.

Standards:

7.1 World Languages All students will be able to use a world language in addition to English to engage in meaningful conversation, to understand and interpret spoken and written language, and to present information, concepts, and ideas, while also gaining an understanding of the perspectives of other cultures. Through language study, they will make connections with other content areas, compare the language and culture studied with their own, and participate in home and global communities.
