Overview

The FDU Mini Law School will provide a week of simulations, discussions, and interactive presentations to give high school students a taste of both a first year law school curriculum and the skills and knowledge needed to compete in moot court programs at the collegiate level. Our sessions will be taught by FDU faculty and advanced undergraduates who have participated in our award-winning Mock Trial team.

Program Dates/Time

July, 23- July 25, 2018 (Tuesday-Thursday: 9:30 A.M.- 2 P.M.)

Accommodations/Meals

The FDU Mini Law School is a daytime only program. Participants will need to return home or obtain their own accommodations at the end of each day. Fairleigh Dickinson University does not provide overnight accommodations. Participants are responsible for reserving their own lodging should they be driving from out of town. Lunch will be provided daily.

Program Waiver Information

All registered participants must complete the FDU participant waiver form. Please bring the signed form with you on the first day of the program, July 23 2019.

Statement About Use of Fees

The tuition fees you provide will go to defray costs of the Mini Law School and will otherwise be deposited into a Prelaw and Mock Trial Restricted Account. Funds from this program will be used to support Prelaw and Mock Trial activities for students and the wider FDU community, including support of the Mock Trial program, the "Lunch and Law" series, guest speakers, LSAT and GRE training, pertinent field experiences, and advertising and publicity. By providing your payment for the 2019 Mini Law School, you are agreeing to use the funds in this way.
